Does Romania comply with EU laws on public procurement?

Following the infringement procedures initiated by the European Commission against Romania for non-compliance with the EU legislative rules on public procurement, the public procurement legislation in Romania has been amended by the non-compliant legal text being repealed.

Will public procurement impact public investments in Romania in 2023?

Given that public procurement's share of Romanian GDP has increased from 8% in 2018 to 19% in 2023, GPP is at least intended to significantly impact public investments, in alignment with existing EU environmental objectives.

What will Romania's public procurement landscape look like in 2025?

The ruling is expected to be delivered in March 2025. Overall, in 2025, Romania's public procurement landscape will likely be characterised by a blend of regulatory evolution, technological integration and GPP or sustainability initiatives.

When will a public procurement portal be relaunched?

As the milestone for operational centralised public procurement units is set for December 2025, we may expect to see faster development in this respect. The main reforms for improving the functionality of the public procurement portal (SEAP) seem to have been implemented in 2024, despite certain delays.
