

Title: Tashkent grid modernization

Generated on: 2026-03-28 11:01:05

Copyright (C) 2026 ESAFETY SOLAR CONTAINER. All rights reserved.

Tashkent's mayor, Shavkat Umurzakov, told Uzbekistan 24 TV channel that President Shavkat Mirziyoyev has approved a project to modernise the capital's energy system, worth over ...

President Shavkat Mirziyoyev was briefed on measures to ensure the stability of Tashkent's power system. Tashkent continues to see population growth and active construction.

The head of the Ministry of Energy announced a program of modernization of power grids, including determining the need for new substations and networks, taking into account the level ...

In 2025, two new 220-500 kV substations will be launched, along with the construction of 485 km of power transmission lines with a capacity of 102 megavolt-amperes, as part of the implementation of ...

The "Reconstruction and Modernization of Existing Substations in Tashkent" project is being implemented in accordance with Resolution No. 598 of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of ...

Due to population growth and active construction in Tashkent, the city's power supply system is undergoing continuous modernization, including repairs of substations and transformers.

The Head of State was briefed on measures to ensure the stability of the energy system in Tashkent. The capital continues to experience population growth and active construction. Over the ...

The Tashkent Mayor Shavkat Umurzakov reported that the President ordered the implementation of all activities in 2025-2026 on construction, repair, laying of networks, construction ...

Website: <https://www.esafet.co.za>

